Hi Karen,

In a word, “Brilliant”.

My mare has gone from being bitten in a full boet type coverall rug last week, having to have a [REDACTED] [help to calm her extreme immune response] from the vet as she was covered in bites that were like “bunches of grapes” all around her exposed skin and where the midges had gone under the rug

to

TURNED OUT WITH NO RUG ON AND NOT A BITE IN SIGHT!!! WELL DONE!!!!!!

Yep, she stinks of curry [ ...yeah, Mother Nature clearly had a cold when she created it [] ] but a small price to pay for a happy little mare who is in the field, turned out at night and not getting plagued with flies.

Its funny, we watch the flies go near the horse with the stuff on and then change their mind about landing...!!!! Proof enough for me!

I also ditched the garlic and swapped [REDACTED] [high profile horse feed often connected to skin issues] to my tried and tested Simple Systems Alfalfa pellets [excellent...can't give a horse a better food regime!!]

All good, so thank you very much, I will be spreading the word and ordering another supply soon.

Thanks also for your extensive email/notes with the product, really helpful.

Kind regards
